TASTING NOTES

A Pinot Noir coming from the foot of the Andes at Los Chacayes showing the full potential of its magnificent terroir. Organic and wild vineyard a red grape with a great secret in its winemaking that allows us to obtain maximum freshness and elegance. Is a tribute of Patrick Blousson to all the women who have accompanied him in the evolution of his works as a viticulturist: his mother, daughters, wife, sisters and his friends. Bright-light violet in color. Wild black fruit aromas that are also clearly seen at taste. Elegant, soft and velvety palate for a wine that can pairing all types of food.
